

Ivan goes to the pool

One day Ivan was at the pool. He decided to go for a swim.

After swimming Ivan went on the railways towards the town.

As Ivan pulled into the town he noticed something was different there was a new traffic light.

As Ivan inspected the traffic light he noticed that there were three colors: red, orange, and green.

Suddenly, Ivan saw the walk sign and he knew it was time to cross the street.

Then Ivan went to the tracks
towards back to the pool.

Once Ivan was back in the pool he decided to play a game.

Ivan played the game and the first roll he rolled a 5 on the dice.

As the sun set, Ivan headed home on tracks.

Finally, Ivan arrived home after a long day of exploring.
